

Ref	Location	Designation / landscape type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint users	Direction	Description	Key components of view	Importance: (R)epresentative, (S)pecial, (E)xceptional
								View point	View	Overall
1	A533	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles	NW & SE	Entrance to Rode Heath	Semi rural nexus of village and open countryside; gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, house on one side only for a distance, giving way to to houses on both sides.	R	R	R
2	Trent & Mersey Canal	Conservation Area	Movement corridor	Boat users, towpath users	SW	Views into Wheelock valley	Expansive vistas which contribute to the bucolic setting of the canal.	S	S	S
3	A50 junction Sandbach Road	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles	N & S	Entrance to Rode Heath (opposite Rode Hall Estate, Grade II listed Hall, with estate on the Register of Historic Parks &	Verdant nexus of village and open countryside: Mature trees and hedges hide the village. The low density	R	S	S

Ref	Location	Designation / landscape type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint users	Direction	Description	Key components of view	Importance: (R)epresentative, (S)pecial, (E)xceptional
						Gardens).	buildings and woodland on each side of this part of Sandbach Road provide a rural aspect.
4	A50 junction Chapel Lane	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles	N & S	Entrance to Rode Heath (opposite Rode Hall Estate, Grade II listed Hall, with estate on the Register of Historic Parks & Gardens).	Verdant nexus of village and open countryside: Mature trees and hedges hide the village. The field off Chapel Lane provides a rural aspect.	R	S	S
5	A34	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles, pedestrians	N & S	Entrance to Scholar Green	Semi rural nexus of village and open countryside: gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, with three bungalows scattered on one side for a long distance. Mature trees (especially in front of the first bungalow and at the junction of Stone Chair Lane) and hedges	R	R	R

Ref	Location	Designation / landscape type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint users	Direction	Description	Key components of view	Importance: (R)epresentative, (S)pecial, (E)xceptional
							amplify the semi rural feel.
6	Macclesfield Canal/ Cinderhill Lane	Conservation Area	Movement corridor	Boat users, towpath users Road users (part)	W & E	Expansive vista	Expansive vistas which contribute to the bucolic setting of the canal. Particular views are into and out of canal area by canalside cottages (valley down to Cinderhill Lane), views of Mow Cop castle and views of Ramsdell Hall.	S	S	S
7	Station Rd	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles, pedestrians	SW & NE	Entrance to Scholar Green, bridge no 87 grade II listed, visible from canal	semi rural nexus of village and open countryside: gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, with houses on one side only (a few scattered historic buildings on the other side). Long views along the canal on both sides by bridge.	R	S	S

Ref	Location	Designation / landscape type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint users	Direction	Description	Key components of view	Importance: (R)epresentative, (S)pecial, (E)xceptional
								R	S	E
8	The Bank	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles, pedestrians	N & S	Entrance to Scholar Green	semi rural nexus of village and open countryside: gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, with houses on one side only	R	R	R
9	Mount Pleasant	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, many vehicles, pedestrians	NW & SE	Entrance to Scholar Green	semi rural nexus of village and open countryside:	R	R	R
10	Church Street	Historic small cluster of buildings	Movement corridor Rural upland historic buildings	Road users, pedestrians	NE & SW	Looking down the Church Street from Halls Road/ Woodcock Lane junction and looking up Church Street from the play area.	The views into this street scene are of a small group of traditional stone buildings (church, school and schoolmaster's house) in wooded uplands, reminiscent of the Peak district.	S	S	S
11	Woodcock Lane	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, pedestrians	SW & NE	Entrance to Mow Cop	semi rural nexus of village and open countryside: gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, with houses	S	E	E

Ref	Location	Designation / landscape type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint(s)	Type of viewpoint users	Direction	Description	Key components of view	Importance: (R)epresentative, (S)pecial, (E)xceptional
							on one side only. Exceptional panoramic views across the Cheshire plains to the Welsh hills.
12	Top Station Road	Village gateway	Movement corridor	Road users, pedestrians	NW & SE	Entrance to Mow Cop	Rural nexus of village and open countryside: gradual increase in housing density as one enters the village, with houses on one side only. Exceptional panoramic views across the Cheshire plains to the Welsh hills.	E	E	E